6. Terms and Conditions of a SARAO Undergraduate Scholarship

If you are awarded a SARAO undergraduate scholarship to study at SPU in 2023, you will be required to agree to the following terms and conditions:

- 6.1. Students are required to sign and submit to SARAO the conditions of a SARAO undergraduate scholarship. Students are also required to submit proof of their registration at SPU, to SARAO. No funds for a scholarship will be released until SARAO has received the signed conditions of scholarship, as well as their proof of registration at SPU.
- 6.2. A scholarship from SARAO is renewable each year, for the minimum completion time prescribed for the qualification selected by student, at the sole discretion of SARAO, and subject to satisfactory academic performance. Students must achieve a minimum of 60% average in their mid-year and year-end exams. Students are required to submit their mid-year and year-end university transcripts for evaluation to SARAO. Students who do not obtain a minimum of 60% average may not receive further funding from SARAO.
- 6.3. Students who do not obtain the qualification for which the scholarship was awarded, relinquish their studies, or leave the tertiary institution during the period for which the scholarship was awarded, will have to refund all payments of the scholarship already paid to them.
- 6.4. Students are allowed to hold supplementary grants with this scholarship, up to a maximum of 50% of SARAO scholarship, but the student must inform SARAO, via his/her university, of such awards.
- 6.5. If a student wishes to change his / her field of study for which the scholarship was offered, he / she must provide a motivation to SARAO for approval, prior to any changes. SARAO is under no obligation to continue the scholarship if the changes do not align with the original criteria on which the scholarship offer was made.
- 6.6. On completion of the studies supported by means of this scholarship, students are required to submit a copy of their qualification certificate to SARAO.
- 6.7. All undergraduate students who have been awarded a SARAO scholarship for the first time are required to attend an induction workshop.
